

At Washington State University
640 N.E. Campus Street, Pullman, Washington

Housing Information

NuHouse 640 is located in the heart of “fraternity and sorority row” on WSU’s College Hill. It had been previously occupied by the Sigma Nu fraternity. The house has been remodeled and updated to be used by both male and female students. We provide co-ed housing segregated by floors. A live-in mentor husband and wife team reside on the main floor and supply the house’s leadership.

Common areas in the building include a living room, dining room, breakfast bar with range and oven, study/quiet room, chapter room with a ping-pong table, pool table, foosball and big screen HDTVs. Big screen HDTVs are also located in the living and dining rooms. We also have male and female ADA compliant restrooms for guests. The site includes a sport court for basketball and bar-b-que, and a large front lawn for recreation and lounging. Parking is available either on-site or in the adjacent WSU lot for a small fee.

All rooms are furnished with a bed, desk, chair, armoire, and night stand. Dedicated high speed Internet is available in each room as well as wireless throughout the house. All utilities are included in the room fee. Room sizes range from: 84 to 132 sq ft (singles) and 154 to 423 sq ft (doubles). All single room selections are based on first come, first serve. Double rooms are assigned according to roommate preference and/or placement by NuHouse 640 staff.