NuHouse 640

At Washington State University
640 N.E. Campus Street, Pullman, Washington

NuHouse 640 provides a family atmosphere that promotes an opportunity to build relationships with students whose values match your own. We are a place where the residents encourage and support both your academic endeavor and spiritual walk. Lastly, we are a really cool place to live in WSU's College Hill District, located in the middle of "fraternity and sorority row."

NuHouse 640 provides high quality co-ed housing that is segregated by floors. We are located in the former Sigma Nu House. Single rooms, double rooms, three and four person lofts are available. All rooms come fully furnished. Parking is available for each resident. A live-in mentor husband and wife team reside on the main floor and supply the house's leadership.
